

HUMOR COLLECTION 2

The little boy wasn't getting good marks in school. One day he made the teacher quite surprised. He tapped her on the shoulder and said... .. "I don't want to scare you, but my daddy says if I don't get better grades... somebody is going to get a spanking..."

A building contractor was being paid by the week for a job that was likely to stretch over several months. He approached the owner of the property and held up the check he'd been given. "This is two hundred dollars less than we agreed on," he said. ... "I know," the owner said, "But last week I overpaid you two hundred dollars, and you never complained." ... The contractor said, "Well, I don't mind an occasional mistake. But when it gets to be a habit, I feel I have to call it to your attention."

A guy goes to see his doctor. He's got a pea in one nostril, a grape in the other, and a string bean stuck in his ear. He says to the doctor, "I don't feel good." ... The doctor replies.... "You're not eating right."

A visitor from Holland was chatting with his American friend and was jokingly explaining about the red, white and blue in the Netherlands flag. .... "Our flag symbolizes our taxes," he said. "We get red when we talk about them, white when we get our tax bill, and blue after we pay them." .... "That's the same with us," the American said, "only we see stars, too."

A little girl and a little boy were at day care one day. The girl approaches the boy and says, "Hey Tommy, want to play house?" .. He says, "Sure! What do you want me to do?" ... The girl replies, "I want you to communicate your feelings." ... "Communicate my feelings?" said a bewildered Tommy. "I have no idea what that means." .... The little girl smirks and says, "Perfect. You can be the husband."

A nervous taxpayer was unhappily conversing with the IRS Tax auditor who had come to review his records. At one point the auditor exclaimed, ... "Mr. Carr, we feel it is a great privilege to be allowed to live and work in the USA. As a citizen you have an obligation to pay taxes, and we expect you to eagerly pay them with a smile." ... "Thank goodness," returned Mr. Carr, with a giant grin on his face from ear to ear. "I thought you were going to want me to pay with cash."

A juggler, driving to his next performance, was stopped by the police. "What are those knives doing in your car?" asked the officer. "I juggle them in my act." "Oh yeah?" says the cop. "Let's see you do it." .... So the juggler starts tossing and juggling the knives. ... A guy driving by sees this and says, "Wow, am I glad I quit drinking! Look at the test they're making you do now!"

A man lay sprawled across three entire seats in the posh theater. When the usher came by and noticed this, he whispered to the man, "Sorry, sir, but you're only allowed one seat." ... The man groaned but didn't budge. The usher became impatient. ... "Sir, if you don't get up from there I'm going to have to call the manager." ... Again, the man just groaned, which infuriated the usher who turned and marched briskly back up the aisle in search of his manager. In a few moments, both the usher and the manager returned and stood over the man. ... Together the two of them tried repeatedly to move him, but with no success. Finally, they summoned the police. ... The cop surveyed the situation briefly then asked, "All right buddy, what's our name?" ... "Sam," the man moaned. .... "Where ya from, Sam?" ... With pain in his voice Sam replied "The balcony"

A lawyer dies in a car accident on his 40th birthday and finds himself at the Pearly Gates. A brass band is playing, the Angels are singing a beautiful hymn, there is a huge crowd cheering and shouting his name and absolutely everyone wants to shake his hand. Just when he thinks things can't possibly get any better, Saint Peter himself runs over, apologizes for not greeting him personally at the pearly gates, shakes his hand and says 'Congratulations son, we've been waiting a long time for you! .... Totally confused and a little embarrassed, the attorney sheepishly looks at Saint Peter and says 'Saint Peter, I tried to lead a God fearing life, I loved my family, I tried to obey the 10 Commandments, but congratulations for what? I honestly don't remember doing anything really special when I was alive.' .... 'Congratulations for what?' says Saint Peter, totally amazed at the man's modesty. 'We're celebrating the fact that you lived to be 160 years old! God himself wants to see you!' ... The lawyer is awestruck and can only look at Saint Peter with his mouth agape. When he regains his power of speech, he looks up at Saint Peter and says 'Saint Peter, I lived my life in the eternal hope that when I died I would be judged by God and be found to be worthy, but I only lived to be forty.' ... 'That's simply impossible son,' says Saint Peter. 'We've added up your time sheets.'

Then there was the cat that ate the cheese and sat by the mouse hole with baited breath.....

Paul got off the elevator on the 40th floor and nervously knocked on his blind date's door. She opened it and was as beautiful and charming as everyone had said. ... "I'll be ready in a few minutes," she said. "Why don't you play with Rollo while you're waiting?" He does wonderful tricks. He rolls over, shakes hands, sits up and if you make a hoop with your arms, he'll jump through." ... The dog followed Paul onto the balcony and started rolling over. Paul made a hoop with his arms and Rollo jumped through -- and over the balcony railing. Just then Paul's date walked out. .... "Isn't Rollo the cutest, happiest dog you've ever seen ? ... "To tell the truth," he replied, "he seemed a little depressed to me."

A well worn dollar bill and a similarly distressed twenty arrived at the bureau of Engraving and Printing to be retired. As they moved along the conveyor belt to the shredder they struck up a conversation. The twenty reminisced about its travels all over the country. "I've had a pretty good life", the twenty proclaimed. "Why I've been to Las Vegas and Atlantic City, the finest restaurants in New York, performances on Broadway, and even a cruise from Miami." ... "Wow!", said the single, "you really have gotten around." .... "So tell me", says the twenty, "where have you been throughout your lifetime?" .... "Oh, I've been to the Methodist Church, the Baptist Church, the Presbyterian Church, the Lutheran Church, the Catholic Church, the Orthodox Church, Assembly of God Church, the Brethren Church, the United Church of Christ...." .... And the twenty says, "What's a church?"

Officer: Soldier, do you have change for a dollar? ... Soldier: Sure, buddy. .... Officer: That's no way to address an officer! Now let's try it again. ... Officer: Do you have change for a dollar? .... Soldier: No, SIR!

Two guys who worked together were both laid off. So off they went to the unemployment office. .... Asked his occupation, the first guy said: "Panty Stitcher! I sew the elastic onto cotton panties." ... The clerk looked up panty stitcher. Finding it classed as unskilled labor, she gave him $300 a week unemployment pay. .... The second guy was asked his occupation. "Diesel fitter," he replied. Since <sup>3</sup>diesel fitter<sup>2</sup> implied a skilled job, the clerk gave the second guy $600 a week. .... When the first guy found out he was furious. He stormed back in to find out why his friend and co-worker was collecting double his pay. The clerk explained: "panty stitchers" were unskilled labor and diesel fitters were skilled labor. ... "What skill?" yelled the panty stitcher. ... "I sew the elastic on. He pulls on it and says, "Yep, diesel fitter."

A husband was just coming out of anesthesia after a series of tests in the hospital, and his wife was sitting at his bedside. His eyes fluttered open, and he murmured, "You're beautiful." ... Flattered, she continued her vigil while he drifted back to sleep. Later he woke up and said, "You're cute." "What happened to 'beautiful'?" she asked him. ... "The drugs are wearing off," he replied.

A father was reading Bible stories to his young son. He read, "The man named Lot was warned to take his wife and flee out of the city, but his wife looked back and was turned to salt." ... His son asked, "What happened to the flea?"

The bartender asks him "What'll you have?". The guy answers, "A scotch, please". The bartender hands him the drink, and says "That'll be five dollars", to which he replies "What are you talking about? I don't owe you anything for this". ... A lawyer, sitting nearby and overhearing the conversation, then says to the bartender, "You know, he's got you there. In the original offer, which constitutes a binding contract upon acceptance, there was no stipulation of remuneration". The bartender's not impressed, but says to the guy, "Okay, you beat me for a drink. But don't ever let me catch you in here again". ... The next day, same guy walks into the bar. Bartender says, "What the heck are you doing in here? I can't believe you've got the audacity to come back!". ... The guy says "What are you talking about? I've never been in this place in my life", to which the bartender replies "I'm very sorry, but this is uncanny. You must have a double." ... To which the guy replies "Thank you! Make it a scotch."

Shakey went to a psychiatrist. "Doc," he said, "I've got trouble. Every time I get into bed, I think there's somebody under it. I get under the bed, I think there's somebody on top of it. Top, under, top, under. You gotta help me, Doc! I'm going crazy!" ... "Just put yourself in my hands for two years," said the shrink. "Come to me three times a week, and I'll cure your fears." ... "How much do you charge?" ... "A hundred dollars per visit." ... "I'll sleep on it," said Shakey. ... Six months later the doctor met Shakey on the street. "Why didn't you ever come to see me again?" asked the psychiatrist. ... "Ha! For a hundred bucks a visit? A bartender cured me for $10." ... "Oh? Is that so! How?" ... "He told me to cut the legs off the bed!"

Taxiing down the tarmac, the jetliner abruptly stopped, turned around and returned to the gate. After an hour long wait, it finally took off. A concerned passenger asked the flight attendant, "What was the problem?" ... "The pilot was bothered by a noise he heard in the engine," he explained. ... "It took us awhile to find a new pilot."

"Your Honor, I want to bring to your attention how unfair it is for my client to be accused of theft. He arrived in New York City a week ago and barely knows his way around. What's more, he only speaks a few words of English." .... The Judge looked at the defendant and asked, "How much English can you speak?" ... The defendant looked up and said, "Give me your wallet!"

As a parent, if you have a lot of tension and you get a headache; do what it says on the aspirin bottle: Take two and keep away from the children

How do crazy people go through the forest? They take the psycho path

What do you call a boomerang that doesn't work? A stick.

What lies at the bottom of the ocean and twitches? A nervous wreck.

Why are there so many Smiths in the phone book? They all have phones.

Why do bagpipers walk when they play? They're trying to get away from the noise.

Why do gorillas have big nostrils? Because they have big fingers

A dog thinks: Hey, these people I live with feed me, love me, provide me with a nice warm, dry house, pet me, and take good care of me... They must be Gods! ... A cat thinks: Hey, these people I live with feed me, love me, provide me with a nice warm, dry house, pet me, and take good care of me... I must be a God!

Linda and Mary are having coffee when Linda notices that Mary seems troubled and asks her, "Is something bugging you? You look anxious." ... "Well, my boyfriend, Steve, just lost all his money and life savings in the stock market," Mary explained. ... "Oh, that's too bad," Linda sympathized. "I'm sure you're feeling sorry for him." ... "Yeah, I am," Mary said. "He'll miss me."

A man walked out into the street in New York, and managed to flag down a taxi just driving by. He got into the taxi, and the cabbie said, "Perfect timing. You're just like Dave." The passenger said, "Who?" The cabbie said, "Dave Bronson! Now there was a guy who did everything right. Like my coming along just when you needed a cab. It would have happened like that to Dave." .... The rider said, "Well, nobody's perfect." ... The cabbie said, "Dave was. He was a terrific athlete. He could have gone on the pro tour in golf. He could have played tennis with the best pros. He sang like an opera baritone, and danced like a Broadway star. He had a memory like a trap. Could remember everybody's birthday. He could fix anything, too...not like me. If I change even a fuse, I black out the whole neighborhood." ... The rider said, "No wonder you remember him. What a friend to have" ... The cabbie said, "Well, no I never actually met Dave." ... The rider asked, "Then how do you know so much about him?" ... The cabbie exclaimed, "I married his widow!"

A man went to NASA and asked for a ticket to the moon. "Sorry, sir" said the attendant, "The moon is full right now."

Tom is applying for a job as a signalman for the local railroad and is told to meet the inspector at the signal box. ... The inspector decides to give Tom a pop quiz, asking: "What would you do if you realized that two trains were heading towards each other on the same track?" Tom says: "I would switch one train to another track." ... "What if the lever broke?" asks the inspector. "Then I'd run down to the tracks and use the manual lever down there", answers Tom. ... "What if that had been struck by lightning?" challenges the inspector. "Then," Tom continued, "I'd run back up here and use the phone to call the next signal box." ... "What if the phone was busy?" "In that case," Tom argued, "I'd run to the street level and use the public phone near the station". ... "What if that had been vandalized?" "Oh well," said Tom, "in that case I would run into town and get my Uncle Leo". ... This puzzled the inspector, so he asked, "Why would you do that?" .. "Because he's never seen a train crash."

A window salesman phoned a customer. "Hello, Mr. Brown," said the sales rep. "I'm calling because our company replaced all the windows in your house with our triple-glazed weather-tight windows over a year ago, and you still haven't sent us a single payment." The customer replied: ... "But you said they'd pay for THEMSELVES in twelve months!"

Finding a bottle on the beach, Jake uncorks it and releases a genie. "Ah, now you get three wishes," says the genie. ... "Great!" Jake replies. "First, I want one billion dollars." Poof! There's a flash, and a paper with Swiss bank account numbers appears in Jake's hand. ... "Next, I want a Ferrari." Poof! Another flash, and a shiny red Ferrari is parked next to him. ... "Finally," Jake says, "I want to be irresistible to women." Poof! ... There's another blinding flash, and Jake turns into a box of chocolates.

A man went back to his doctor to get the results of tests he had done a week earlier. The doctor told him he had some good news and some bad news. ... The patient said, "OK, what's the good news?" The doctor replied "You have 24 hours to live". ... The patient gasped and said, "If that's the good news, what could possibly be the bad news?" ... The doctor said, ... "The bad news is that I should have told you yesterday!"

The Smith's were proud of their family tradition. Their ancestors had come to America on the Mayflower. They had included Senators and Wall Street wizards. They decided to compile a family history, a legacy for their children and grandchildren. ... They hired a fine author. ... Only one problem arose - how to handle that great-uncle George, who was executed in the electric chair. The author said he could handle the story tactfully. ... The book appeared. ... It said... "Great-uncle George occupied a chair of applied electronics at an important government institution, was attached to his position by the strongest of ties, and his death came as a great shock."

Over breakfast one morning, a woman said to her husband, "I'll bet you don't know what day this is." "Of course I do," he answered as if he was offended, and left for the office. ... At 10:00 a.m., the doorbell rang and when the woman opened the door, she was handed a box of a dozen long stemmed red roses. ... At 1:00 p.m., a foil-wrapped, two-pound box of her favorite chocolates was delivered. ... Later, a boutique delivered a designer dress. .... The woman couldn't wait for her husband to come home. "First the flowers, then the chocolates and then the dress!" she exclaimed. ... "I've never had a more wonderful Groundhog Day in my life!

Two snakes were out taking a stroll when the son snake turns to the mother snake and asks: "Mommy! Are we poisonous?" "Why, yes we are," says the second. ... Again the baby snake asks, "Are you sure we're poisonous?" "Yes, we are very poisonous." ... The baby snake becomes very upset. Again, he asks, "Are we really, really poisonous?" "Yes, we are really, really poisonous. In fact we're the most poisonous snakes in the world. Why do you ask?" .. "I just bit my lip!!!"

Upon entering a little country store, the stranger noticed a sign saying "DANGER! BEWARE OF DOG!" posted on the door glass. Inside, he noticed a harmless old hound dog asleep on the floor near the cash register. ... He asked the store's owner "Is that the dog folks are supposed to beware of?" "Yep," the proprietor answered, "That's him." ... The stranger couldn't help being amused. "That certainly doesn't look like a dangerous dog to me," he chuckled. "Why in the world did you decide to post that sign?" ... "Because," the owner replied, "before I posted that sign, people kept tripping over him."

The patrol officer stopped a motorist for a traffic violation. .... Standing outside his expensive foreign car, the red-faced driver frantically waved his hands and jumped up and down. "I'll have your job for this!" he shouted at the top of his lungs. ... "Sir, you wouldn't want my job," replied the unruffled officer as he wrote out the citation. "The hours are long, the pay is low, and you meet some of the nastiest people."

Late one night in Washington, D.C., a mugger wearing a ski mask jumped into the path of a well-dressed man and stuck a gun in his ribs. "Give me your money!" he demanded. Indignant, the affluent man replied, "You can't do this - I'm a...a.. U.S. Senator!" "In that case," replied the robber... "Give me MY money!!!

A little boy runs into the kitchen, crying. His mother asks, "Johnny, why are you crying?" ... Johnny cries, "Because daddy hit his thumb with the hammer!" ... His mother says, "You shouldn't cry because of that. You should laugh!" .... Johnny breaks out in tears anew and says, ... "But I did!"

A woman walks into the butcher shop just before closing. She says, "Thank Heavens I've made it in time! Have you any turkey?" ... The butcher opens his fridge and takes out his only turkey, and plops it onto the scale. It weighs 4 1/2 pounds. ... "Ah, haven't you anything bigger?" the woman inquires. ... The butcher returns the turkey to the fridge, takes it out again, and plops it onto the scale, only this time, he keeps his thumb on the turkey. The scale shows 7 1/4 pounds. ... "Marvelous!" says the woman. "I'll have both of them please."

The summer band class was just getting under way when a large insect flew into the room. The sixth-graders, eager to play their shiny new instruments, tried to ignore the buzzing intruder, but eventually one student, Tommy, could stand it no more. He rolled up his music book and swatted the insect, then he stomped on it to ensure its fate. ... "Is it a bee?" another student asked. ... "Nope," Tommy replied. "Bee flat."

"Doc, even though you've diagnosed me as having a split personality, is it all right for me to get married?" ... "Oh, sure. Who are you planning to marry?" ... "The Johnson twins."

Driving home from church one Sunday, the father tuned the radio to a country and western station. ... "How can you stand that stuff?" complained his 16-year-old son. "It's all about lonesome cowboys, gunfights and broken hearts." ... Knowing he preferred rock 'n' roll, the dad asked, "Well, what's your music about?" "That's the beauty of it," the son said. "You just don't know"
