By now

I would imagine
You think
You're a little smarter
Than your parents

And that's okay
In some ways, you are

But before you begin
Thinking that you've
Nothing more to learn
From us

Never forget

There's one thing we know
That you probably never will

We know how loud
You can scream

When you fall into the toilet
